THREE MEN CAPTURED, TWO STILL AT LARGE

All of the Party Said to Have Been Drinking—All Leave the Machine on Country Road and Chauffeur Dismissed for a Time—Report of Five Shots Immediately Follows—Four Bullets in Woman's Head and Wound in One Ear.

Stratford, Conn., Oct. 22.—A woman known as Rose White of Bridgeport was shot to death tonight near the Putney cemetery, several miles from here, by members of a party of five men, said to be from New York, but who have been living in Bridgeport for the last few days. Three of the party have been arrested, but the police were at first unable to learn their names. The other two members of the party are still at large. All the men are said to be Italian.

All of Party Had Been Drinking. Two members of the party went to a Bridgeport garage tonight, hired a large seven passenger auto and secured William Hall, of Bridgeport, as chauffeur. The party stopped at the corner of Union and Water streets and three other men and the woman got into the auto. It is said that all of the party had been drinking. The chauffeur was ordered to drive in the direction of Putney. After traveling several miles Hall was ordered to stop his machine, and the five men and the woman got out.

Chauffeur Heard Five Shots. Hall was told to drive ahead and turn around and come back to the party. He went to do so when he heard five shots. Hall lost no time, but put on full speed and came to Stratford, where he notified the authorities of the shooting. Constable Allen Judson, Deputy Sheriff Williams and others got into the auto and drove to the spot. State Policemen Wheeler, who lives here, was notified, and he went out on his motorcycle.

Capture of Three Men. On the way out one of the men was arrested by Judson and Williams. In the meantime the Stratford police had been notified, and Chief Robbins and another officer caught two more of the men. The police are now scouring the woods in the vicinity for the two missing men, but so far they have not been able to obtain the slightest clue as to their whereabouts.

Five Bullet Wounds in Woman. The three men were later taken to Bridgeport, where they are lodged in police headquarters. The woman's body was found along the roadside, with four bullets in her head, and the wound of where another bullet had apparently passed through her ear. The body is that of a young woman, about 5 feet 5 inches in height, with dark hair and a complexion. She was plainly attired in a blue dress with tan shoes.

Fishman Thought It a Joke. F. L. Jennings, a fish dealer, on his way home from Shelton heard the shots and saw the men run, but thought it was a joke until he stopped to investigate further. He discovered the woman's body.

Dr. W. B. Cowell, two medical examiners, was notified and he gave permission for the removal of the body to the undertaking rooms of F. L. Curtis.

Revolver Found on Prisoner. On the person of one of the men arrested was found a .38 calibre revolver with five chambers exploded.

Later it was learned that the name of the dead woman was Rose White of Bridgeport. The men arrested are: Joe Buonomo, Joseph Motton and Frank Prizichens, all of New York. Buonomo, who was arrested by the Stratford officers, had the revolver in his pocket.

Woman Well Known to Police. Rose White has a police record, being arrested several times in the tenement district.

GOVERNOR BALDWIN

THE ONLY OFF-HORSE.

Other Executives Favor Co-operative Banks For Farmers.

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 22.—President Taft's plan for co-operative banks for the American farmer has been endorsed by seven governors. Ten letters from state executives disapproving the plan have been received at the executive offices of Governor Simon E. Baldwin, of Connecticut, was the only governor to express disapproval of the scheme. Two letters were received from secretaries to governors. The governors who approved the president's idea were: Eberhart, of Minnesota; Pothier, of Rhode Island; Foss, of Massachusetts; Vessey, of South Dakota; Blossa, of South Carolina; Galloway, of Maryland and Mason, of Virginia.

The president in his letter to the governors said that the question of co-operative credit for farmers at interest rates equal to those paid by capital, was one for the states to take up and suggested that the governors in their conference at Richmond, Va., early in December, discuss the matter. The seven state executives who replied favorably all said that they would be glad to have the matter considered at the Richmond conference.

Governor Baldwin, the only dissenter, said in part:

"As far as Connecticut is concerned, our general incorporation laws are now very liberal and our savings banks have such an abundance of deposits that they are well able to meet all the financial needs of Connecticut agriculture; nor do they ever charge above a very moderate rate of interest. The Ruffin plan, co-operative plan, would, I think, give little satisfaction here, in I think, give little satisfaction here."

FOR DEBS OR CHAPIN?

Declares He Won't Vote for Taft, Roosevelt or Wilson.

Lacrosse, Wis., Oct. 22.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, in a speech tonight, declared that he would not vote for Roosevelt, Taft or Wilson. He compared the suppression of competition through the growth of trusts to a huge cancer, the treatment of which required great skill. "It is no job for a bull moose," said Senator La Follette, and judging by what has happened in the past four years it does not seem to be a job for an amiable, easy-going man. A fellow over in New Jersey has been running a hospital with pretty good success, but he has not treated cancer. I propose to pursue an independent course. I will not vote for any of those three men."

Senator La Follette said that he still believed in a protective policy, but believed it should be gauged on the basis of the real difference between the cost of production here and abroad.

Lucile Cameron, who has been held in the Rockford, Ill., jail in default of $25,000 bonds and her mother appeared at the federal building, and while they waited to be called into the jury room the mother again pleaded with the girl to give up the negro pugilist, and to tell the jurors all she could regarding her relations with him.

At the close of the hearing before the grand jury Miss Cameron became hysterical and had to be removed to the office of the United States deputy marshal. She will appear before the body again tomorrow.

Later it was said that the girl had finally yielded to the pleadings of her mother, Mrs. Cameron Falconett, of Minneapolis, and consented to return to her home, denouncing the pugilist.

Complete Rest

For Roosevelt

PHYSICIANS DECLARE IT ONE THING ESSENTIAL

ALL VISITORS BARRED

Ordered to Have No Callers For Two Days—Mrs. Roosevelt Places Men on Guard at Gate at Sagamore Hill.

Oyster Bay, Oct. 22.—The quiet routine of life at Sagamore Hill was picked up again by Colonel Roosevelt and his family today, as though it had not been interrupted by the firing of a shot meant to kill the master of the house. For the first time since he was shot in Milwaukee, eight days ago, Colonel Roosevelt was unattended tonight by a physician. There was no one in the house except the members of the family and servants, and the colonel spoke hopefully of being able, after one day more of rest, gradually to resume his work.

Complete Rest Essential.

Except for the fact that Colonel Roosevelt was in bed this evening, instead of at work in his library, there was nothing to suggest that anything out of the ordinary had occurred. Four physicians came with the colonel on his arrival at Oyster Bay from Chicago this morning, and after they had dressed his wound they told him that the one essential was complete rest. If their directions are observed, it is believed that the ex-president's complete recovery is probable, although it cannot yet be said that he is entirely out of danger.

Wound Still Wide Open.

Dr. Alexander Lambert and Dr. Scoury Terrell, who accompanied Colonel Roosevelt from Chicago, were joined in New York by Dr. Joseph A. Blake and Dr. George Brower. After examining the patient they said that the wound was still wide open, spoke of the possibility of infection and added they were unable to say whether it would be possible for him to take up the work of the campaign again.

Colonel Roosevelt, when his wound had been dressed, said there was no longer the need of constant supervision of physicians, because he was "all right."

Physicians Loath to Leave Him.

The physicians were doubtful at first whether he should be left alone, and it was suggested that one of them remain at Sagamore Hill. But the colonel insisted that it was unnecessary, and the physicians concluded it would be wisest to accede to his wishes.

Danger of a sudden change in his condition being remote, it was thought that the colonel would make rapid progress toward recovery if he were left alone with his family, without suggestion of anything other than the usual conditions which surround his life at Sagamore Hill. The physicians all went to New York and said that they would not return until tomorrow afternoon.

Has Colored Nurse.

James Ames, or "Jim," as the colonel calls his negro butler, is acting as nurse, under the direction of Mrs. Roosevelt. He has been with the colonel so long that he is able to anticipate his wants and care for him more satisfactorily than almost anyone else except Mrs. Roosevelt herself.

Mrs. Roosevelt and "Jim" spent a contented evening together. The colonel, who had recovered from the weariness due to his long journey, dozed at intervals, then awoke and asked "Jim" to bring him a glass of milk. Mrs. Roosevelt came in from time to time to her husband's room.

Mrs. Roosevelt Places Men on Guard.

The parting injunction of the physicians was that Colonel Roosevelt must have absolute rest, and that he must see no one today or tomorrow. William B. Hotchkiss, chairman of the state progressive party, came to Oyster Bay to see the colonel. Mr. Hotchkiss got by the guards, but he halted at the residence itself. Colonel Roosevelt sent out his regrets that he was unable to receive the state chairman and made an appointment for a conference on Thursday.

Doctors Bar Hotchkiss. Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 22.—An instance of the fidelity with which the physicians' orders against visitors are being enforced, was furnished when William B. Hotchkiss, chairman of the state progressive party, came to Oyster Bay to see the colonel. Mr. Hotchkiss got by the guards, but he halted at the residence itself. Colonel Roosevelt sent out his regrets that he was unable to receive the state chairman and made an appointment for a conference on Thursday.

Colonel Resents a Personal Guard. Some of Colonel Roosevelt's friends were afraid of his safety and insisted that he must be protected against an other attack, but the colonel would not hear of a personal guard and had only his family and the servants about the house around him.

His physicians would make no promises as to when the colonel would be able to be out.

The colonel hopes to hold a short conference with Senator Dixon, George W. Perkins and a few other progressive leaders on Thursday.
